

Drinking Water Corporation

In some areas people are suffering with Kidney diseases, to overcome this problem is there any preventive measure to adopt before supplying water to the consumer.

- To find the measures that could be taken which could help prevent people from suffering through the kidney and other diseases due to the improper supply of water to the consumers in many parts of India.